DISTRICT CONVENTION

 FEBRUARY 11-14, 2027

 LUBBOCK, TEXAS

On behalf of the Texas Council of Alpha Chapters (TCAC) of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., we invite you to partner with the Historic Eta Upsilon of Texas Tech University and the Community advocates of the Omicron Epsilon Chapters as a sponsor for the 2027 Texas Council of Alpha Chapters District Convention, to be held February 11-14, 2027, in Lubbock, Texas.

Founded in 1906 at Cornell University, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. is the nation's first intercollegiate fraternity established for African American men. For more than a century, Alpha Phi Alpha has developed leaders, promoted academic excellence, and provided advocacy and service to communities throughout the world. Distinguished members include Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Thurgood Marshall, Paul Robeson, Edward Brooke, and countless leaders in business, education, medicine, government, and public service.

The Texas Council of Alpha Chapters represents collegiate and alumni chapters across the state of Texas and serves as a catalyst for leadership development, scholarship, mentorship, civic engagement, and community impact. Our annual convention convenes more than 600 attendees including professionals, students, educators, entrepreneurs, elected officials, and civic leaders from across the state.
